DIVISION III

PERMITS

Industrial permits.

24. Every person other than the Société wishing to operate an establishment for the making or distribution of alcoholic beverages shall obtain from the Régie des alcools, des courses et des jeux a small-scale production permit, a small-scale beer producer's permit or one of the five following industrial permits:

(1) a brewer's permit;

(1.1) a beer distributor's permit;

- (2) a distiller's permit;
- (3) a wine maker's permit;
- (4) a cider maker's permit.

Warehouse permit.

A warehouse permit may also be issued by the board under this Act.

1971, c. 20, s. 24; 1979, c. 77, s. 29; 1983, c. 30, s. 6; 1984, c. 36, s. 44; 1986, c. 111, s. 3; 1988, c. 41, s. 89; 1990, c. 21, s. 1; 1992, c. 17, s. 2; 1993, c. 39, s. 95; 1996, c. 34, s. 1; 1999, c. 40, s. 283.

Small-scale production permit.

24.1. A small-scale production permit authorizes the holder, in accordance with the regulations, to

- (1) make the alcoholic beverages, other than beer, specified in the permit and bottle them;
- (2) purchase alcohol from the Société to blend with the alcoholic beverages he makes.

Sale inside Québec.

Unless he ships them outside Québec, the holder of a small-scale production permit may sell alcoholic beverages he makes only as follows:

- (1) at the place where they are produced, for consumption on the premises indicated in the permit or for consumption elsewhere;
- (2) at the place where they are produced, to the holder of a permit issued under the Act respecting liquor permits (chapter P-9.1) that authorizes alcoholic beverages made at such a place to be sold or served for consumption on the premises, provided that a numbered sticker issued by the board is affixed by the permit holder to each container, in numerical order, at the time of sale;
- (3) in a room or on a terrace where a permit issued under the Act respecting liquor permits authorizes the permit holder to sell alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises, provided that a numbered sticker issued by the board is affixed by the permit holder to each original container, in numerical order.

Sale.

The holder of a small-scale production permit may also sell and deliver the alcoholic beverages he makes to the Société.

Sale prohibited.

No holder of such a permit may sell the alcoholic beverages he makes to the holder of a permit issued under this Act or, subject to the second paragraph, under the Act respecting liquor permits.

1986, c. 111, s. 4; 1988, c. 41, s. 89; 1990, c. 21, s. 2; 1996, c. 34, s. 2; 1999, c. 40, s. 283.

Small-scale beer producer's permit.

24.2. A small-scale beer producer's permit authorizes the holder, in accordance with the regulations, to

- (1) make beer and bottle it;
- (2) make alcoholic beverages by combining beer with other non-alcoholic substances and bottle them;
- (3) purchase alcohol from the Société to blend with the alcoholic beverages that he makes.
